OPENING THE WORLD SINCE 1878

WARM-UP

It sounds great to me

Rick: I think we should go ahead with the plan. What do you think, John?

John: Oh, I agree. It sounds great to me.

Rick: What about you, Brenda? You don't seem so sure.

Brenda: Well, I don't know, Rick. I agree the plan looks good on paper, but it's a lot of money. Can we really afford this right now?

WARM-UP

The goal for this session is to politely agree or disagree with someone.

SECTION 1

Section 1: Vocabulary, Expressions, and Terms

OPENING THE WORLD SINCE 1878

I respectfully disagree
and would like to offer
an alternative option.

It may take time to convince others to change their opinion.

It's best to ignore rude comments online.

Although he felt angry,
he communicated calmly
and professionally.

She felt annoyed by the repeated delays.

We have different perspectives, but both are valuable.

We are working toward
the same goal.

Language Focus

Softening a negative message

- Add words like quite, perhaps, probably, possibly, rather:
That's not what we wanted. → That's not quite what we wanted.
- Say what something isn't:
It looks bad. → It doesn't look good.
- Say what you like or what is good first:
It's not really my style. → I love the color, but it's not really my style.
