

That's the policy	We are busy	It's complicated	You'll have to redo it	You'll have to deal with it
We never said that	Well, that's too bad	Check back later	Can you stop emailing?	There is no update
Calm down	You'll just have to accept it	Please wait	This isn't urgent	We can't do anything
We are working on it	You'll get it when it's ready	This will take a while	I'll be transparent, I don't know	This is not my responsibility
The delay is not our fault	You need to be patient	We won't offer a compensation	We apologize but there is nothing we can do right now	That's how it is
